

The Unumb Center
FOR NEURODEVELOPMENT

Program Manager: BCBA

The Unumb Center for Neurodevelopment is a nonprofit clinic that specializes in providing applied behavior analysis (ABA), diagnostic testing, individual and family therapy, social skills groups, and summer programs. The ABA Department provides individual and small group services for children and adolescents ages 2-21 in the clinic, home, and community. The Unumb Center, founded in 2010 by Dan and Lorri Unumb, is in the historic district of sunny, downtown Columbia, South Carolina.

Why Choose The Unumb Center?

- Team Approach: close, on-going collaboration with Executive Director, Director of Clinical Services, colleagues, other professionals, and experts in the field
- Work-Life Balance: set work schedule, paid time off, and 11 paid holidays
- Company paid CEUs and additional onsite professional development opportunities
- Medical Benefits: including dental, vision, and short and long-term disability
- Weekly staff meetings, journal club, and ethics committee
- Small caseload: 6-9 clients
- Full-time administrator for scheduling RBT's and RBT subs

Requirements and Responsibilities:

- Board Certification (BCBA/BCaBA)
- Administer assessments including but not limited to VB MAPP, Essentials for Living, AFLS, ABLLS, and PDDBI
- Create and modify individualized treatment plans for each client on caseload
- Observe client during treatment, compile and evaluate data on client responses to treatments and progress
- Conduct functional assessments and analyses
- Create behavior plans for each child on caseload as needed, monitor implementation, and provide feedback as necessary
- Create and supervise implementation of new programs
- Train, supervise, provide feedback and coaching for all RBTs on principles of ABA and client's program under the direction of the Director of Clinical Services
- Attend and participate in parent team meetings, therapist meetings, trainings, professional development and other meetings as needed

Applicants should forward an expression of interest with resume to the Director of Clinical Services, Dr. Katie Franke at katie.franke@unumbcenter.org.